VELA - Afternoon Beverage Opportunity

Own the afternoon reset.

A refreshing alternative to high-intensity energy drinks.

Illustrative demo. VELA is a fictional brand.

Why this opportunity

- The afternoon is a recognised slump (illustrative survey)
- Energy drinks feel like too much for many
- Botanicals signal lighter, not weaker (interpretation)

Risks and next test

- Assumption: the afternoon is a buying occasion
- Risk: light caffeine may read as weak

Next: Does the occasion motivate purchase?
